DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the plural profiles in the profile grooves must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 1761

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification fails to disclose the use of plural profiles in the profile groove.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hedenberg in view of Miller.

There is disclosed in Hedenberg a bread maker, comprising: a main body 2; an oven (interior heating chamber) accommodated in the main body; a baking tray 25 placed inside the oven and formed with a profile groove (not labeled, see figure 3), the tray comprising a stationary tray 28 and a movable tray 26; and a profile 40, 42 combined in the profile groove of the baking tray.

Miller discloses a peripheral groove 14 having a rectangular cross-section for supporting a cylindrical gasket 20, the groove including flanges (protrusions) 19 for retaining the gasket within the groove.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the profile groove of Hedenberg with the flanges (protrusions) taught in Miller, in order to help retain the profile within the profile groove.

In regards to the use of plural profiles, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide plural profiles, since it has been held that mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art.

In regards to the method of forming the protrusion on the groove, such is not germane to the issue of patentability of the device itself. Therefore, this limitation has not been given patentable weight.

In regards to claim 13, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify the shape of the Hedenberg groove with that taught by Miller, in order to provide an alternative shape for the groove.
